Genesis – First Things - Course Syllabus

Description:

Students develop a Biblical worldview through the foundational concepts taught in Genesis—First Things. This course emphasizes the authority and veracity of the Bible as a guide for history and every other aspect of life. Through a study of Creation, the Flood, the Tower of Babel, and the Patriarchs, we see the Bible’s guide in dealing with family, marriage, government, capital punishment, modesty, prejudice, alcohol, and more. Complete with discussion questions, charts, timelines, and articles relating Bible passages to current events, students are given the foundation to form a Biblical worldview through the study of Genesis.
