Kings of Israel - Course Syllabus

Description:

Students will delight to study God’s Word as they delve into Israel’s fascinating history through this study outline. First semester students will study Israel’s United Kingdom from the suffering under King Saul to the blessings under King David and King Solomon. Second semester covers the Divided Kingdoms of Israel and Judah, the Assyrian and Babylonian captivities, and the return of the Jewish people to Jerusalem. A major theme is the blessings of repentance and obedience and the consequences of defiance and disobedience. Complete with timelines and review questions for each section, the study outline guides students to learn about Israel’s history while gleaning spiritual lessons for today.
