World History - Course Syllabus

Description:

From the beginning of civilization to the 20th century rise of globalism, this course will enable students to see God's purpose and plan in human events. The students will study the beginning of nations at the Tower of Babel, the beginning of writing in Sumer, the rise of republican government in Rome, the revival of humanities in the Renaissance, the rise of exploration from Europe, and the consequences of Communism in Russia. With timelines of events, over 300 photographs of important people and places in history, section and chapter reviews, plus maps of the world, students will have a firm grasp of world events and cultures.
