WHY EARNING A HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA IS IMPORTANT

Earning a high school diploma is important for many reasons. Students planning on entering the workforce, joining the US Military or enrolling into college or university will need to have a high school diploma. If you are seeking a faith-based education that aligns with your Christian values, Northgate Academy may be the perfect choice.

NORTHGATE ACADEMY WELCOMES EVERYONE

We have a unique community of online learners from all over the world. We have students that chose to attend high school online due to social problems, large classroom size, conflicting beliefs concerning the educational process, and bullying. Maybe you just don't share the values taught at the public schools. We have athletes, performers, military and expats students, as well as, international students that have chosen to earn an American, accredited high school diploma online. Students love the ability to attend high school according to their schedule and pace.
